Online Lean Six Sigma Champion Belt Training

Quality - Support - Innovation

Our Master Black Belt trainers have used their wealth of experience employing Lean Six Sigma across all industries to bring you online Champion Belt training of the highest quality.

You will learn the associated terminology, tools and roles of Lean Six Sigma and on completion you will receive a CPD-accredited Champion Belt Lean Six Sigma certificate which is recognised worldwide and qualifies you for 10 CPD points.

Developed by our in-house eLearning team, our online Lean

Six Sigma Champion Belt is a flexible and interactive way of learning. There are quizzes throughout to consolidate your learning and monitor your progress, and you can retake the final exam several times.

If you need time away from your screen, there is downloadable content available including documents and activities that you can complete offline.

Teamed with our excellent support that enables you to email your Master Black Belt directly for advice, our online Champion Belt course ensures that you will learn with confidence.

The course is optimised for use on desktops and tablets and has a British voiceover. You will have access to the course for one month, giving you plenty of time to finish and revisit the training.
