EXPERIENCE

With over 17 years' experience in Lean Six Sigma, Mike is one of our most well-respected Master Black Belts. He began his Lean Six Sigma and operational management career in 1995 while working for GE Lighting, and has been working to spread Business Improvement best practice since.

After leaving GE, he worked for Alstom Transport, Textron, Norwich Union and SigmaPro, before joining 100% Effective as a Senior/Lead Consultant in 2013. Throughout his career he has consistently delivered projects with multi-million pound savings, and has continued to mentor and coach others in Lean Six Sigma.

Since he began delivering Lean Six Sigma training, Mike worked tirelessly to enhance learning with the very best approaches to teaching and knowledge retention. This culminated with the creation of our unique blended training materials which offer one of the most robust and high-quality online courses available in the UK.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

An effective communicator with a commitment to obtaining the best possible results, Mike has reputation as an outstanding trainer and is regularly requested by clients. He is known for his excellent communication skills and is able to draw on his own professional experience as a Master Black Belt to provide real-world examples and tangible advice. With such a long career he has an impressive list of achievements:

- Helped companies in the US, UK and Europe to successfully deploy Lean Six Sigma
- Has delivered savings of between £250k and £3.3m during his role as Master Black Belt with a number of high profile clients
- Produced market-leading training materials that help delegates learn more quickly and retain the learning for longer
- Has acted as a mentor and coach to countless Black Belts in his role as Master Black Belt
- Trained hundreds of Lean Six Sigma Belts to certification
- Has consistently 100% positive feedback from delegates
